U. NATIONAL LIBRARY OF SCOTLAND

ACT

Concerning Citations in Proceſſes for Treaſon.

EDINBURGH, May 1. 1685.

OUR SOVERAIGN LORD, with Advice and Conſent of the Eſtates of Parliament, Do hereby Ratifie and Approve the former Cuſtom uſed by His Majeſties Commiſſioners of Juſticiary, in Proceeding againſt Pannals already in Priſon, and Indicted for Treaſon upon Twenty Four Hours; but for the future His Majeſty allows ſuch Pannals to be Cited on Fourty Eight Hours; and if the Pannals repreſent ſuch Defences to the Commiſſioners of Juſticiary within that Time as may need an Exculpation: His Majeſty, with Advice foreſaid, Allows the ſaids Commiſſioners to delay the Tryal till the Days elapſe, on which the Exculpation is to be raiſed.

EDINBURGH,
Printed by the Heir of Andrew Anderſon, Printer to His moſt Sacred Majeſty, Anno DOM. 1685.

X

Act. parlt 1685. anent stations in Tran
[illegible] Clo proffoot and mag 6. Hū Sands
eyards for wines.
1685.

X